

public, and we shall fail to reach our national purity if greed and selfishness lead the way. Recognizing these truths the national Democratic party will need to appeal to our people's blessings above them from the government's support, to promote among our countrymen the spirit of patriotism and national pride, and to point out a fair field, when prosperous and diversified American enterprise may grow and flourish, and the welfare and progress of American industry, ingenuity and intelligence.

Tariff Reform Is Not Free Trade.
Tariff reform is still important. Through the efforts of many who care lawmen have passed having for their object the creation of discriminating and unfair governmental protection to private interests, while leaving the public at large to bear the brunt of the tariff. We believe a readjustment can be accomplished in accordance with the principles we profess without doing violence to the public interest. The advantages of free raw material should be accorded to our manufacturers, and we contemplate a fair and just distribution of the benefits rather than the precipitation of free trade.

We anticipate with calmness the misrepresentations of our opponents and intend to meet them by a straightforward frankness to mold in unrelenting grasp its ultimate advantage under present tariff laws. We will rely upon the intelligent and patriotic elements of our country to change that a party comprising a majority of our people is planning the destruction of industry. American interests are safe, and the time can be brightened by the expatriation of importers.

Opposed to the Force Bill.
The administration and management of our government depend upon personal tact, political master. Therefore the attempt of the opponents of democracy to interfere with the election of a president who has been elected through a campaign which no explanation can mitigate, to reverse the fundamental and sole relations between the people and government, and to make it difficult to be regarded as a legitimate ascendency of a party comprising a majority of the people. To resist such a scheme is an impulse of democracy. At all times and in all places we trust the people. As a nation we present to them as our claim to their confidence and support a steady championing of their rights.

Federal and Honest Taxes.

The people are entitled to sound and honest money abundantly sufficient to volume to supply their business needs, but whatever may be the form of their paper currency, it must be based upon the gold, silver and copper—it should be so regulated and guarded by governmental action or by wise and careful legislation that the value of its intrinsic metal and stability of its value, every dollar put into the hands of the people should be of the same intrinsic value or purchasing power as when it was received. It is anticipated, both gold and silver can be safely utilized upon equal terms in the adjustment of our currency.

True to Civil-Service Reform.
Public officials are the agents of the people. It is therefore their duty to secure for those whom they represent the best and most efficient service. The work of public officials can only be best accomplished by regarding ascertained fitness in the selection of government employees. The qualifications of civil service reformers are the same as those adherence to the letter and spirit of civil service reform. There are other other qualifications which should be considered in the appointment of civil service reformers. These men are actually disengaged from party politics and are as much disengaged from party politics as from the party of the people.

Liberty to Weir.
The American people are generous and grateful, and they have imposed these characteristics upon their government. The services of our soldiers and for the families of those who have died in the service should be the work of public officials, particularly those actually disengaged or made dependent by reason of arms service.

Paternalism and Honest Taxes.
The assurance to the people of the utmost individual liberty combined with peace and good order is a cardinal principle of our government. That leaves no room for taxation which in a measure interferes with the rights of our people, as are not favorable to a just and sensible, and are not inconsistent with good citizenship and the public welfare.

Paternalism a Symptom of Misrule.
The assurance to the people of the utmost individual liberty combined with peace and good order is a cardinal principle of our government. That leaves no room for taxation which in a measure interferes with the rights of our people, as are not favorable to a just and sensible, and are not inconsistent with good citizenship and the public welfare.

Paternalism in Government finds no argument in favor of paternalism, which is manifested in the form of misrule, whether it is manifested in unauthorized gifts or by an unwarranted control of personal and family affairs.

Henry C. Peal, of Pittsburg, Pa., Weir's Executor, Secures a Warrant for the Arrest of McIntosh and Mrs. Marsh on a Charge of Malicious Injury.

MAY BE HELD FOR MURDER.
Weir's Executor Had McIntosh and Mrs. Marsh Arrested.

Brilliant in power to aid and constant in a watchful care over our favored nation. Yours, very truly,
Grover Cleveland,
Gray Gables, Sept. 26, 1892.

POLITICIANS ON THE LETTER.

DEMOCRATIC LEADERS PRAISE IT AS ADMIRABLE EXPOSITION OF DEMOCRACY.
Democratic politicians express intense satisfaction with the terms of Mr. Cleveland's letter. Ex-Secretary Whitney, Senator Bristow, Bradley B. Smalley and Secretary Sheerin of the National Committee, have telegraphed congratulations to Mr. Cleveland upon the strength and simplicity of the statements contained in the letter.

Mr. Whitney said: "It is a broad-minded and patriotic document."

Colonel Smalley remarked: "I consider it the best State paper that Mr. Cleveland has ever written."

Secretary Sheerin declared: "I think every expression is strong and explicit. A fair and honest expression is what the American people want, and every man in this country have the people been accustomed to get an expression in plain and通俗的 language that a party comprising a majority of our people is planning the destruction of industry. American interests are safe, and the time can be brightened by the expatriation of importers."

Opposed to the Force Bill.
The administration and management of our government depend upon personal tact, political master. Therefore the attempt of the opponents of democracy to interfere with the election of a president who has been elected through a campaign which no explanation can mitigate, to reverse the fundamental and sole relations between the people and government, and to make it difficult to be regarded as a legitimate ascendency of a party comprising a majority of the people. To resist such a scheme is an impulse of democracy. At all times and in all places we trust the people. As a nation we present to them as our claim to their confidence and support a steady championing of their rights.

THROUGH EDITORIAL EYES.
Democratic and Republican Papers—Comment on the Letter.

Louisville Courier-Journal (Dem.)—It takes no step backward in the great issue of tariff reform, but argues the question in a thoroughly statesmanlike way.

Cleveland Leader (Rep.)—Cleveland has done what every one expected him to do with the team plank of the Union convention. He gives his own interpretation and gives also his own idea of the lines of the proposed schedule of 1894.

Cleveland Plain Dealer (Dem.)—In less than one-third the space occupied by the President's letter, Mr. Cleveland covers all the main points of difference between the two parties in the present campaign.

Indiana Journal-Rep.—Mr. Cleveland has written too many letters of acceptance of presidential nominations. His third effort is the weakest of the series.

Ind. Republic (Dem.)—It is an appeal to the sober judgment and the enlightened self-interest of the people.

Cincinnati Commercial Gazette (Rep.)—It is a disappointment.

Syracuse Courier-Dem.—It will stimulate the Democracy and all friends of good government to renew their efforts in behalf of the cause she so ably champions.

Boston Herald (Ind.)—It shuns by its own merits, as well as by comparison with the Harrison article.

Pittsburg Post-Gazette (Rep.)—The letter is characteristic in its attempt to substitute for the authorized platform of the party the statement of policy by the candidate.

Pittsburg Commercial Gazette (Rep.)—It has the tendency of thought which have characterized all of Mr. Cleveland's public papers.

St. Louis Globe-Democrat (Ind.)—The letter will not add to his reputation as a statesman or as a man of decided and sincere convictions.

MAY BE HELD FOR MURDER.
Weir's Executor Had McIntosh and Mrs. Marsh Arrested.

James McIntosh and Mrs. Henry Marsh, who are said to be from Pittsburgh, Pa., are prisoners in the Belmont County Jail on a charge of grand larceny, having been arrested there, and are held on $1,000 bail.

They were accused of robbing a bank and of being guilty of malice aforethought.

They were accused of robbing a bank and of being guilty of malice aforethought.

They were accused of robbing a bank and of being guilty of malice aforethought.

They were accused of robbing a bank and of being guilty of malice aforethought.

They were accused of robbing a bank and of being guilty of malice aforethought.

They were accused of robbing a bank and of being guilty of malice aforethought.

They were accused of robbing a bank and of being guilty of malice aforethought.

They were accused of robbing a bank and of being guilty of malice aforethought.

They were accused of robbing a bank and of being guilty of malice aforethought.

They were accused of robbing a bank and of being guilty of malice aforethought.

They were accused of robbing a bank and of being guilty of malice aforethought.

They were accused of robbing a bank and of being guilty of malice aforethought.

They were accused of robbing a bank and of being guilty of malice aforethought.

They were accused of robbing a bank and of being guilty of malice aforethought.

They were accused of robbing a bank and of being guilty of malice aforethought.

They were accused of robbing a bank and of being guilty of malice aforethought.

They were accused of robbing a bank and of being guilty of malice aforethought.

They were accused of robbing a bank and of being guilty of malice aforethought.

They were accused of robbing a bank and of being guilty of malice aforethought.

They were accused of robbing a bank and of being guilty of malice aforethought.

They were accused of robbing a bank and of being guilty of malice aforethought.

They were accused of robbing a bank and of being guilty of malice aforethought.

They were accused of robbing a bank and of being guilty of malice aforethought.

They were accused of robbing a bank and of being guilty of malice aforethought.

They were accused of robbing a bank and of being guilty of malice aforethought.

They were accused of robbing a bank and of being guilty of malice aforethought.

They were accused of robbing a bank and of being guilty of malice aforethought.

They were accused of robbing a bank and of being guilty of malice aforethought.

They were accused of robbing a bank and of being guilty of malice aforethought.

They were accused of robbing a bank and of being guilty of malice aforethought.

They were accused of robbing a bank and of being guilty of malice aforethought.

They were accused of robbing a bank and of being guilty of malice aforethought.

They were accused of robbing a bank and of being guilty of malice aforethought.

They were accused of robbing a bank and of being guilty of malice aforethought.

INCREASING DAY BY DAY. POINTERS ON THE RACES.

The Western Democratic Campaign Fund Total Is Now $30,547.63.

Out-of-Town Newspapers Do Good Work for Tariff Reform.

[From This Morning's World.] HOW THE FUND STANDS NOW.

Grand total acknowledged in yesterday's "World".....$30,249.13 Total yesterday.....208.14 Grand total.....$30,547.63

In 1890 many Western States, hitherto looked upon as solidly Republican, gave practical evidence of their disgust of the so-called protective system by electing Democratic Congressmen. For years the voters in these States had blindly followed the dictates of the Republican leaders. They believed that protection increased wages and that a highly protected tariff meant general prosperity.

Under this delusion they voted to its support.

But the prosperity failed to materialize and the thinking voter began to realize that in spite of the utterances of the Republican speaker, there might be something wrong and accordingly began investigations. After looking up the facts it was unanimously agreed that they had been imposed upon that protection failed in its promises and that the whole system was a fraudulent scheme devised in the interest of a few plutocratic Eastern manufacturers.

It was in that year that the arose in their wrath, put indignation and indignation returned to the West. And for its defense it returned to Congress men who were the open and avowed advocates of tariff reform.

These men in 1890 voted for a principle. The same issue is before the country today, and is most fittingly represented by the Democratic candidates. It is not unreasonable, therefore, to suppose that these men will vote in 1892 as they did two years ago.

They were tired then of supporting a party that only imposed upon them additional burdens, and to-day they are still more tired and disgusted with the Republicans and their protec-tions.

These converts to Democracy were made because the truth was brought home to them. The just and equitable workings of tariff reform convinced them that only under such a system could they obtain relief from all their troubles. In the States of Illinois, Iowa, Wisconsin, Michigan, Minnesota, Kansas and Nebraska are thousands and thousands of farmers discontented with their condition. They realize that they are imposed upon, but they were tired then of supporting a party that only imposed upon them additional burdens, and to-day they are still more tired and disgusted with the Republicans and their protec-tions.

These converts to Democracy were made because the truth was brought home to them. The just and equitable workings of tariff reform convinced them that only under such a system could they obtain relief from all their troubles. In the States of Illinois, Iowa, Wisconsin, Michigan, Minnesota, Kansas and Nebraska are thousands and thousands of farmers discontented with their condition. They realize that they are imposed upon, but they were tired then of supporting a party that only imposed upon them additional burdens, and to-day they are still more tired and disgusted with the Republicans and their protec-tions.

These converts to Democracy were made because the truth was brought home to them. The just and equitable workings of tariff reform convinced them that only under such a system could they obtain relief from all their troubles. In the States of Illinois, Iowa, Wisconsin, Michigan, Minnesota, Kansas and Nebraska are thousands and thousands of farmers discontented with their condition. They realize that they are imposed upon, but they were tired then of supporting a party that only imposed upon them additional burdens, and to-day they are still more tired and disgusted with the Republicans and their protec-tions.

These converts to Democracy were made because the truth was brought home to them. The just and equitable workings of tariff reform convinced them that only under such a system could they obtain relief from all their troubles. In the States of Illinois, Iowa, Wisconsin, Michigan, Minnesota, Kansas and Nebraska are thousands and thousands of farmers discontented with their condition. They realize that they are imposed upon, but they were tired then of supporting a party that only imposed upon them additional burdens, and to-day they are still more tired and disgusted with the Republicans and their protec-tions.

These converts to Democracy were made because the truth was brought home to them. The just and equitable workings of tariff reform convinced them that only under such a system could they obtain relief from all their troubles. In the States of Illinois, Iowa, Wisconsin, Michigan, Minnesota, Kansas and Nebraska are thousands and thousands of farmers discontented with their condition. They realize that they are imposed upon, but they were tired then of supporting a party that only imposed upon them additional burdens, and to-day they are still more tired and disgusted with the Republicans and their protec-tions.

These converts to Democracy were made because the truth was brought home to them. The just and equitable workings of tariff reform convinced them that only under such a system could they obtain relief from all their troubles. In the States of Illinois, Iowa, Wisconsin, Michigan, Minnesota, Kansas and Nebraska are thousands and thousands of farmers discontented with their condition. They realize that they are imposed upon, but they were tired then of supporting a party that only imposed upon them additional burdens, and to-day they are still more tired and disgusted with the Republicans and their protec-tions.

These converts to Democracy were made because the truth was brought home to them. The just and equitable workings of tariff reform convinced them that only under such a system could they obtain relief from all their troubles. In the States of Illinois, Iowa, Wisconsin, Michigan, Minnesota, Kansas and Nebraska are thousands and thousands of farmers discontented with their condition. They realize that they are imposed upon, but they were tired then of supporting a party that only imposed upon them additional burdens, and to-day they are still more tired and disgusted with the Republicans and their protec-tions.

These converts to Democracy were made because the truth was brought home to them. The just and equitable workings of tariff reform convinced them that only under such a system could they obtain relief from all their troubles. In the States of Illinois, Iowa, Wisconsin, Michigan, Minnesota, Kansas and Nebraska are thousands and thousands of farmers discontented with their condition. They realize that they are imposed upon, but they were tired then of supporting a party that only imposed upon them additional burdens, and to-day they are still more tired and disgusted with the Republicans and their protec-tions.

These converts to Democracy were made because the truth was brought home to them. The just and equitable workings of tariff reform convinced them that only under such a system could they obtain relief from all their troubles. In the States of Illinois, Iowa, Wisconsin, Michigan, Minnesota, Kansas and Nebraska are thousands and thousands of farmers discontented with their condition. They realize that they are imposed upon, but they were tired then of supporting a party that only imposed upon them additional burdens, and to-day they are still more tired and disgusted with the Republicans and their protec-tions.

These converts to Democracy were made because the truth was brought home to them. The just and equitable workings of tariff reform convinced them that only under such a system could they obtain relief from all their troubles. In the States of Illinois, Iowa, Wisconsin, Michigan, Minnesota, Kansas and Nebraska are thousands and thousands of farmers discontented with their condition. They realize that they are imposed upon, but they were tired then of supporting a party that only imposed upon them additional burdens, and to-day they are still more tired and disgusted with the Republicans and their protec-tions.

These converts to Democracy were made because the truth was brought home to them. The just and equitable workings of tariff reform convinced them that only under such a system could they obtain relief from all their troubles. In the States of Illinois, Iowa, Wisconsin, Michigan, Minnesota, Kansas and Nebraska are thousands and thousands of farmers discontented with their condition. They realize that they are imposed upon, but they were tired then of supporting a party that only imposed upon them additional burdens, and to-day they are still more tired and disgusted with the Republicans and their protec-tions.

These converts to Democracy were made because the truth was brought home to them. The just and equitable workings of tariff reform convinced them that only under such a system could they obtain relief from all their troubles. In the States of Illinois, Iowa, Wisconsin, Michigan, Minnesota, Kansas and Nebraska are thousands and thousands of farmers discontented with their condition. They realize that they are imposed upon, but they were tired then of supporting a party that only imposed upon them additional burdens, and to-day they are still more tired and disgusted with the Republicans and their protec-tions.

These converts to Democracy were made because the truth was brought home to them. The just and equitable workings of tariff reform convinced them that only under such a system could they obtain relief from all their troubles. In the States of Illinois, Iowa, Wisconsin, Michigan, Minnesota, Kansas and Nebraska are thousands and thousands of farmers discontented with their condition. They realize that they are imposed upon, but they were tired then of supporting a party that only imposed upon them additional burdens, and to-day they are still more tired and disgusted with the Republicans and their protec-tions.

These converts to Democracy were made because the truth was brought home to them. The just and equitable workings of tariff reform convinced them that only under such a system could they obtain relief from all their troubles. In the States of Illinois, Iowa, Wisconsin, Michigan, Minnesota, Kansas and Nebraska are thousands and thousands of farmers discontented with their condition. They